We are committed to expanding access to mortgage credit for well-qualified borrowers who may not fit into traditional or jumbo markets. Our portfolio of products makes lending easy for clients who meet QM requirements and accommodates those that don't quite fit QM. All of our products meet the highest standards of quality and strive to make the housing finance system safer and more efficient by complying with ability-to-repay (ATR) and other requirements.

In compliance with ATR determinations Bayview considers, at a minimum, the following underwriting factors:

- The monthly mortgage payment on the transaction
- The monthly payment on any simultaneous loan
- The monthly payment for mortgage-related obligations
